

Peter Krebs

1022 Tufton Avenue | Charlottesville, VA 22902

434-465-9869 | peter@culturecurrent.com | www.culturecurrent.com/peter | www.monticelloroad.com

Peter Krebs is an artist/organizer based in Charlottesville, VA. He is currently a Masters Degree candidate (Urban and Environmental Planning) at the University of Virginia School of Architecture. A native of suburban DC, he graduated from the College of William and Mary in 1993 (Interdisciplinary Studies/ Fine Arts/ Economics).

Peter spent long periods as a working artist in Washington and Brooklyn, and shorter ones in Pittsburgh and Paris. He is best known for his community arts project, Monticello Road, which celebrates the people and places along a one-mile strip through one of America's most interesting neighborhoods. (www.monticelloroad.com)

His projects focus on the intersection of creativity, community engagement and healthy communities. He has founded and directed numerous community arts and fitness organizations and is currently working with the City of Charlottesville on Safe Routes to School and a bike/pedestrian heritage trail to Thomas Jefferson's Monticello.